From Thursday, FEBRUARY 2, to Thursday, FEBRUARY 9, 1738.

LONDON, November 26.

LAST Sunday Night at Eleven o'Clock died of a Mortification of the Bowels, Her Majesty WILHELMINA DOROTHEA CAROLINA, Queen Consort of Great Britain, &c. aged 54 Years, 8 Months, and 20 Days. She was Daughter of John-Frederick Marquis of Brandenburg-Anspach, by Eleanora Erdmuth-Louisa, his second Wife, (Daughter to John George, Duke of Saxo-Eytenach.) This most excellent Queen was born March 2, 1682-3: and was married to his Majesty at Hanover, August 22, 1705. at a Time when she was courted to marry Charles the then King of Spain, and now Emperor of Germany. She was Crowned with his Majesty on the 11th of October, 1727: had Issue by his Majesty four Sons, and five Daughters; viz. Frederick Lewis, Prince of Wales, born January 20, 1706; Anne, Princess of Orange, born October 22, 1709; the Princess Amelia Sophia, born May 30, 1711; the Princess Carolina Elizabeth, born May 30, 1713; William Augustus, Duke of Cumberland, born April 15, 1711; the Princess Mary, born February 21, 1723; the Princess Louisa, born December 7, 1724; which are all living: a Prince, dead born, November 9, 1726; and George William, Duke of Gloucester, born November 2, 1717, who died the 6th of February following. Her Majesty was taken ill on Wednesday the 9th Instant, after she had breakfasted at her Library in the Park.

"Her Character deserves to be the Subject of the most able Pens, and her Memory must be for ever dear to every Friend of our Religion and Liberties. For the World has not at any Time produc'd an Example of greater Distinction in the several Relations of Life, whether we consider Her Majesty as a Queen, a Wife, a Mother, a Mistress, or a Friend; of which we might produce a Multitude of the most undoubted Instances, if the Sacredness of the Characters that are concerned did not make the Subject too delicate for us to undertake.

"Tho' her Illness was severe and afflicting above Measure, and attended with great Pain to herself, it has been the Means of giving us the most exalted Idea of her Virtues, which enabled her to go through such a Trial, not only with Submission to the Divine Will, but with a Composedness of Temper, and Magnanimity of Spirit, which amazed all that were about her. Every Interval of Ease from her Sufferings, was employed in Acts of Devotion; in giving new Proofs of Tenderness to Those that were most dear to her; in shewing her kindest Regards to her Servants, and manifesting her Zeal for the Welfare of the Publick.

"Her Manner of Thinking and Speaking on the many interesting Subjects that possess'd her Soul, and her whole Behaviour from the Beginning of her Illness to the fatal Moment in which she expired, was so full of Dignity and Innocence, and withal so natural and unaffected, that 'tis hard to say whether her great Abilities,

"and all the amiable Qualities which adorned her Life have done more Honour to her Character, than the Circumstances which preceded her Death, and which we doubt not will be recorded in a better Page. Many Particulars might be added with the strictest Truth, which would give our Readers the most lively Sense of the irreparable Loss these Kingdoms have sustained by her Death. But as this may be done hereafter, we chuse at this Time to avoid any Thing that may heighten the real Concern which appears in all Ranks of People on this affecting Occasion."

A private Letter by the last Mail from Holland mentions, that it was reported there that Admiral Schreyver, Commander of one of their Men of War at Curacao in the West Indies, being apprised of the Insults committed by the Spanish Guarde Coasts, quitted his own Ship of 50 Guns, and went on board another of 20 Guns, well man'd, and in a small Time was attack'd by two Spanish Vessels, one of 20 Guns, the other of 10, which he took after a smart Engagement, himself being wounded, and 85 of his Men kill'd and wounded. When the Spanish Commanders were examin'd, they could produce no Commissions, but said they were fully empower'd by the Governor of Porto Rico; on which the Dutch Admirals, to the Governour, to know if he had commission'd such Vessels, but receiving an Answer in the Negative, he immediately went on board his own Ship, called a Council of War, declared them Pyrates, and hang'd them all up.

Yesterday four Men of War were put into Commission, and are to sail to Georgia, to protect that Colony from the Insults of the Spaniards.

We hear by private Letters from Gibraltar, that thirty Mortar Pieces and 30,000 Spaniards are arriv'd at the Batteries near that Town.

Hague, Nov 14. Advices are come hither from Vienna, that the Town of Nissa surrender'd to the Turks without making any Defence, for want, 'twas said, of Provisions and Ammunition; having obtain'd the same Capitulation as the Turks when they deliver'd up that Place to the Imperialists. The Count Seckendorf was confin'd to his House at Vienna, and likewise General Schmetsau put under Arrest at Breslaw, whither he was gone. Letters from Camenieck relate, that the Congress at Nimrod was dissolv'd, the Turkish Plenipotentiaries having retir'd from that Place on the 10th of October, and the Imperialists and Muscovites on the 2d.

Bristol, Nov 12. Our Merchants have laid aside their Design of petitioning the King; but as several Persons are arriv'd here from the Havanna, who were taken by the Spaniards on board the George, Capt. Henry Wear, of this Port, they have been dispatch'd to London, to lay that Pyratelical Affair before the Board of Council.

Extrall of a Letter from an English Gentleman at the Havanna to several Merchants at Bristol, dated Aug. 26 1737.

Gentlemen,

"I make bold to trouble you with this, to make you sensible I am not negligent of embracing all Opportunities of Writing.

Writing, more than for what good News I can acquaint you with. Our Affair here goes on but very slowly, but am afraid the Spaniards will make our Vessel a Prize; for they stick at nothing, notwithstanding my Plea, that I received what Money they found on board from the Company's Agents at Jamaica. I acquainted you in my last Advices after what Manner and where we were taken; the same Cruiser has since taken and brought into this Place, the Loyal Charles, Capt. Way, and the Dispatch, Capt. De la Mott both from Jamaica, bound for London, and they will make Prizes of them both, altho' they have not found any Thing contraband on board them: So, Gentlemen, I can't tell how Things may be at Home, whether Peace or War; but I am sure it is open War here on their Parts. I should have come away by this Opportunity, were it not to wait the Issue of my Trial, and to have something to satisfy the Insurers, tho' I don't know but at the same Time I run a Risque of my Liberty; for if a War breaks out I am doomed to Imprisonment: I shall take the next Opportunity that offers to come home, or go any where rather than stay here. I am now on Shore at the English Factory, which gives me a more convenient Opportunity of writing than when on board.

P.S. Since my Arrival here there have been no less than 8 or 900 Soldiers imported, and more expected, who are now going to embark on a Vessel for St. Augustine; so that it is Time for Carolina and Georgia to keep a good Look-out.

CHARLES TOWN, February 9.

On Saturday last the two following Ads were ratified.

An Act further to empower the Commissioners for regulating Pilots for the Port and Harbour of Charles-Town.

An Act for easing the Tax of the current Year to the Inhabitants of this Province, by appropriating certain Surplus Moneys in aid of the same.

And the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to Tuesday the 21st of this Instant.

Whereas some of the Members of the Friendly Society have omitted to pay the Interest arising on their Bonds to the said Society, and which becomes due on every third Day of February, it was thought proper and so ordered by the said Society at their last annual Meeting to publish the following Paragraph of the Articles of the said Society, to the Intent that the several Members may be apprised of the Danger they run into by the Neglect of Payment of their Interest, besides leaving themselves subject to be sued on their respective Bonds to the said Society. It is therefore expected that all the Members of the said Society will for the future be punctual in discharging the Interest of their Bonds on the Day it becomes due.

"And in case any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay the Interest as aforesaid to become due on their respective Bonds, by the space of 3 Months after the same becomes due, every such Person so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, shall loose and forfeit all Benefit and Advantage of his Insurance, any thing in his her or their Policy of Insurance to the contrary notwithstanding."

By order of the Friendly Society
JACOB MOTTE, C.
